John Wesley Hardin was one of the most notorious gunfighters of the old west. A veteran of numerous gun fights, he built a reputation as a contentious, quick to shoot, character of ill repute. Hardin lived by the gun and died by the gun. The John Wesley Hardin Gunbelt, is rugged in its straightforward simplicity. The gunbelt carries a loop style holster high on the straight cut 2 3/8" wide cartridge belt, tapered to a 1 1/8" wide old style buckle. Both belt and holster are fully leather lined, saddle stitched and finished in old world chestnut color.

THE BILL TILGHMAN
MODEL #1897

The all new Model 1897 is a tribute to controversial lawman and gunfighter, Bill Tilghman 1884-1924. A contemporary of Wyatt Earp, Bill Tilghman was city marshal of Dodge City, Kansas, and Deputy U.S. Marshal for the Oklahoma Territory under Bat Masterson. Tilghman lived and died by the gun at age 70 in the line of duty.

Holster available for all large frame revolvers $175 / Cartridge Belt $220 / Complete Outfit $395

THE BUFFALO BELT MONEY BELT
MODEL #1895

The design of the money style belt was a favorite in the Old West. The hollow area inside the belt was used to store important papers and a few coins. The extra wide 3 inch accommodates a wide variety of rifle and pistol calibers. Offered with a 2" buckle, extra fancy border stamp design, full leather lining, finished in hand rubbed antique chestnut stain.

1895 money belt $365
1895 half skirt Mexican loops holster $240
1895 custom made knife sheath with kydex safety liner $225
William H Bonney, AKA "Billy the Kid", a notorious scoundrel of ill repute with few socially redeeming attributes, was a major participant in the bloody Lincoln County, New Mexico war in the late 1870s. He was often glamorized by the press of the day and the pages of fictionalized western American history. Although Billy was right handed, he was thought to be left handed due to the reversal of the only known tintype photo of him. He lived by the gun and he died by the gun at age 21 in 1881. His unique gunbelt and "V" cut holster for his Colt .45 Peacemaker has been faithfully and accurately reproduced based on the best photographic evidence available.

All gunbelts and holsters are interchangible to create a customized rig.
Tom Threepersons, (1889-1969) was a part Cherokee Indian, legendary and controversial lawman and soldier of fortune of the 1920’s. He is credited with designing a streamlined new belt holster that was ahead of its time. The holster rode high on the pants belt with an exposed trigger guard and slight forward cant.

Available for all single and double action revolvers and large frame 1911 style semi auto pistols. The T3 holster is handmade, one at a time, is fully leather lined, saddle stitched and form fit to your pistol.

This holster will fit on belts up to 2” wide.

Trouser Belt and Gunbelt Sizing

DO NOT ESTIMATE your waist size!
ALWAYS use a tailor’s tape measure to insure accuracy
Measure WHERE you will WEAR the belt!

Measure your exact WAIST size here for trouser belts
Measure your waist by putting a tape measure through your pant loops around your waist. DO NOT wear a belt when you do this.

Measure your exact HIP size here for gunbelts
The proper position to wear western style gunbelts in immediately under the trouser belt line in a horizontal position as shown.

ACCURATE SIZING IS VERY IMPORTANT. BELTS ARE CUT AND Sized ACCORDING TO THE INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE.

IMPORTANT NOTE: With the custom made nature of our products and suppliers, as well as our limited annual production, styles, trim and hardware may not always be as depicted. You can be sure that every rig that leaves our facility will have a unique personality and will be a one-of-a-kind work of art.

Gun Measuring

MEASURING YOUR GUN BARREL IS ESSENTIAL TO A PROPER FIT!

Revolvers are measured from the front of the cylinder to the end of the barrel

Semi-automatics are measured from the muzzle to the rear of the ejection port.

For safety, unload gun when measuring.

Measure WHERE you will WEAR the belt!

All Frontier Gunleather belts and holsters are handcrafted of premium quality full grain cowhide, fully lined and saddle stitched, using only the highest quality hardware and hand finished with the finest oils, and leather dressing.

Color & Finish
Your custom gunleather is typically finished in a rich golden brown color. Old world techniques of hand-rubbed oils and waxes are used to give a beautiful, long lasting luster to your fine leather.

Border Stamping
Your choice of finishes are plain, smooth natural leather or antique border stamp design. Each choice is priced accordingly. Typical examples are shown throughout this catalog. Border Stamp Designs are makers choice and may vary from pictures shown unless otherwise requested.

Silver Buckles & Trim
Three silver buckle styles are available. Additional hand-engraved silver conchos and trim are priced according to style and design.

Finish & Design
Each belt and holster are individually hand-crafted one-at-a-time. No two pieces will be exactly alike. Stamping, carving and color will vary. This Individuality enhances the artistic value of your gunleather. Matching belts and holsters ordered together will be perfectly color matched. Items ordered separately at different times, may differ slightly. Note: We offer a wide range of custom made belts, holsters and accessories not shown in this catalog. Phone us for more information and prices. 760·895·4401.

Caution
All firearms are potentially dangerous and may cause great harm, personal injury or death. No person should handle any firearm unless such person has passed an accredited firearms safety course. Guns should be stored, transported and used with great care. Such care should also be used in placing guns into or removing guns from your holster. Your Frontier Gunleather holster should be used only with the specific gun (frame and barrel size) for which it was designed. Neither your gun nor your holster should be modified in any way, because alteration may increase the chance for accidental discharge. Always use the retainer strap (hammer thong) when your pistol is holstered. Fast draw shooting with live ammunition is not recommended, and should be restricted to full-time, paid professional shooters only.

Disclaimer of Warranty
Pursuant to the provisions of the California Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, this product is sold “as is” and “with all faults”. The entire risk as to quality and performance of the product is with the buyer. Should the product prove defective following its purchase, the buyer and not the manufacturer, distributor or retailer, assumes the entire risk of all necessary servicing or repair. The determination of the fitness or the suitability of any product for a specific use is the responsibility of the buyer.

Loaded Firearms
Carrying any handgun with a live cartridge in the chamber immediately in front of the firing pin may cause an accidental discharge. Certain single-action revolvers should only be carried with the hammer or firing pin resting on an empty chamber. It is the user’s responsibility to exercise extreme caution when handling or carrying any handgun, and to assume at all times that the gun is loaded.

The Whole, Never Before Told Story of An American Legend

John Bianchi
An American Legend
50 Years of Gunleather

A Biography by Dennis Adler
Introduction by James Arness

Written and photographed by award winning photo journalist Dennis Adler.

260 page, 9 x 12 in., hardcover deluxe landscape format publication is a must have for any firearms enthusiast’s library.

John Bianchi – An American Legend – 50 Years of Gunleather features nine full color chapters covering the extraordinary life of this firearms industry innovator, former police officer, citizen soldier, industrialist, Western personality, and great American.

The story of the man who revolutionized the holster industry and founded Bianchi International, the world’s largest manufacturer of gunleather for police, military, and sportsman.

“A good man to ride the river with,” Said Captain Clint Peoples, Texas Ranger, of his friend and colleague, John Bianchi, when they served together on the board of the U.S. Marshalls Bicentennial Commission in Washington D.C. in the early 1990’s. This is the most cherished accolade bestowed on those held in high esteem by old lawmen along the Texas/Mexico border.
